All of the members of the cubinet are now here except Becretartes Hav and Long. The former telegraphed Sunday that he would etart from Newberry Monday, probabily in time to be here Monday night. Secretary Long also telegraphed that he was cuniting, but did not specify the time. The cabinet officers feel it to be their duty to be here in the crists to meet any emergency. They are tolding to formal meetings, although the vare some matters of public business. Alth they daily discuss informally, and the possible contingencies should the preshibat grow works are also thoroughly canvassed. They do not believe that there is the most remote possibility that Vice President Hoosevelt will be ested upon to easierise the functions of chief mastiration white the greatest from the constitution white the president flyes. Vice President Roosevelt would not hear of such a course. Still, in the event of grave Integrantiumal complications, an emergency hight-occur, and in question has arisen in their minds as its who should probabin the disability provided for by the constitution.

The members of the cubinet are making their headquarters at the Roffalo club, and there their turerhanges take place. They are to remain here for the present and the place of departure are indefinite and not even thought of while the president is not entirely out of danger. If he should pass the danger polit, however, they will return at once to Warhington.

t'levelund, O., Sept. 10,-The encommittee had assigned nearly 10,000 persons to the rooms, where previous arrangements had been made. If the number of army posts which were at the schoolhouses it was esti-mated by the committee that at least 5,000 strangers are within the city This somewhat exceeded the expecta tion of the committee. An invitation to the the president to review th reneval of the one to the cablue members makes complete practically the arrangements of the execution committee,
